

Presentation by Jessie Do

<https://youtu.be/9LkFbxWD8ss>

We were asked to draw the relationship between me and my voice in one of the classes. These are what I drew.

In the drawing on the right, I illustrated the overwhelming feeling of “One facing many”. The drawing on the left symbolizes “Death by suffocation”, by suppressing the throat, my voice.

My presentation is a song I wrote. A testimony of what I have learned in this class. These include my understanding of music theory, utilizing my voice as an instrument, and how intention manifests who we are.

Ultimately this led me to singing out loud, breaking the fear of speaking my own truth. To make it fun, I learned and produced this raw and preliminary animation within one week. I hope you enjoy it. Thank you.

Portal to the Star

Da da la, da da la
Da da la, da

Da da la, da da la
Da da la, da

I am a song I know not
Singing the tune memory brought
Generational ignorance I stored up
Repeated by many who forgot

Da da la, da da la
Da da la, da

Da da la, da da la
Da da la, da

You are a song you know not
Singing the tune History Plot
Eons Sorrow and anger you picked up
Reverberated by many who forgot

Da da la, da da la
Da da la, da

Da da la, da da la
Da da la, da

Here we are...here we are
Time to wake up and sing from heart
Our voice is the portal to the star
Sing out loud and make it spark

Together...we sing
For humanity
The brightest star.
